

THE BEST HONEYMOONS BY MONTH CONT.

january: st. barts

You'll get stunning weather and maybe a few star sightings too—celebs flock to this Caribbean haven at the beginning of the year.

where to stay

Start the new year—and married life—off right, getting pampered at Hotel Saint-Barth Isle de France. All 39 of the elegant, whitewashed rooms at this French-chic resort come with amazing views of either lush, tropical gardens or the island's best beach, Baie des Flamands. If it's available, reserve the Hillside Bungalow for the private pool and never-ending seascapes (from $470, Isle-de-France.com).

what to do

Take a boat or hike over to Anse à Colombier Beach. It's the hardest to get to of the island's 14 beaches, so it's far more intimate.

if the date's not doable

Plan your escape for December or anytime between February and July—hurricane season runs through the rest of the months.
