IF YOU CHOSE MOSTLY A'S Action YOU'RE LOOKING FOR...

BOOK YOUR ESCAPE TO

JAMAICA

WHERE TO PLAY Jamaica's north coast between Montego Bay and Ocho Rios is the Caribbean's adventure headquarters with jungle zip lines, white-water rafting, tubing, spelunking, horseback riding, muddy ATV circuits, mountain bikes, rainforest hikes and even waterfalls with swinging Tarzan vines. Book a guided bike ride through rainforest and coffee plantations with Blue Mountain Bicycle Tours. Even more daring: Get in some cool runs at Mystic Mountain's bobsled track.

WHERE TO STAY Sandals Royal Plantation Beach & Villa Golf Resort in Ocho Rios is an intimate, all-suite hotel with luxe amenities like 24/7 butler service, five restaurants and rooms that each have a four-poster bed and an ocean-view balcony. From $526 per couple per night, all-inclusive.

FIJI

WHERE TO PLAY Fiji's largest island, Viti Levu, is that rare South Pacific landfall

where you can navigate white-water rivers and hike ranges for days rather than just a few hours. Rivers Fiji organizes guided raft and kayak trips down the Luva and Navua, as well as an eight-day "Highlands to Islands" adventure that includes river running and sea kayaking. Feeling intrepid? Plan your own hike across the Sigatoka Dunes or Koroyanitu National Heritage Park, rich with flora and fauna. Or tandem free-fall with Skydive Fiji: You already took the real plunge with your honey — what's another thousand feet? WHERE TO STAY We suggest crashing on the Coral Coast along Viti Levu's shore for easy adventure access. In addition to extending beautiful beachfront bures, Uprising Beach Resort's in-house excursions include waterfall safaris, white-water rafting and even rugby with the locals. From $161 per couple per night double occupancy.

IF YOU CHOSE MOSTLY B'S Food YOU'RE LOOKING FOR...

BOOK YOUR ESCAPE TO

WHERE TO PLAY It's no shocker that St. Barthelemy does food right. Because France. A Gallic playground and Francophile's dreamland for nearly 400 years, it's like a little Paris in the middle of the Atlantic, with a culinary scene attracting travelers with seriously sophisticated palates. Overlooking yacht-filled Gustavia harbor, the romantic Wall House presents fusion plates like lemon-grass-skewered mahimahi. Out on the beach, Bartolomeo restaurant at the Hotel Guanahani mixes French, Italian and Japanese influences.

WHERE TO STAY The five-star Hotel Saint-Barth Isle de France brings Cannes to the Caribbean, and the resort's La Case de la Cas restaurant runs heavy on seafood, savoir-faire and sinfully sweet dessert offerings. From $703 per couple per night double occupancy.

SINGAPORE

WHERE TO PLAY A favorite of wandering chefs Anthony Bourdain and Andrew Zimmern, Singapore blends Chinese, Indian, Malay and European cuisines and more than 2,000 eateries, from fragrant hawker stalls (all noodles, all the time!) to rooftop restaurants with million-dollar views and alfresco cafes along the Singapore River. Dive into local favorites like crispy black-pepper crab at East Coast Seafood Centre, or dress to the nines for foie gras and truffles at ultrapopular resto Iggy's. Want some hands-on training? Arrange a couple's class at Coriander Leaf Cooking Studio.

WHERE TO STAY It's only 15 minutes from downtown, but the Singapore Resort & Spa Sentosa feels a million miles from the hustle and bustle. A true tropical escape, it sprawls across 27 acres of gardens and woodlands on Sentosa Island, a foodie paradise in its own right. Sample the culinary delights of trendy street stalls and open-air restaurants along Sentosa Beach. From $196 per night double occupancy.

IF YOU CHOSE MOSTLY C'S Beaches YOU'RE LOOKING FOR...

BOOK YOUR ESCAPE TO

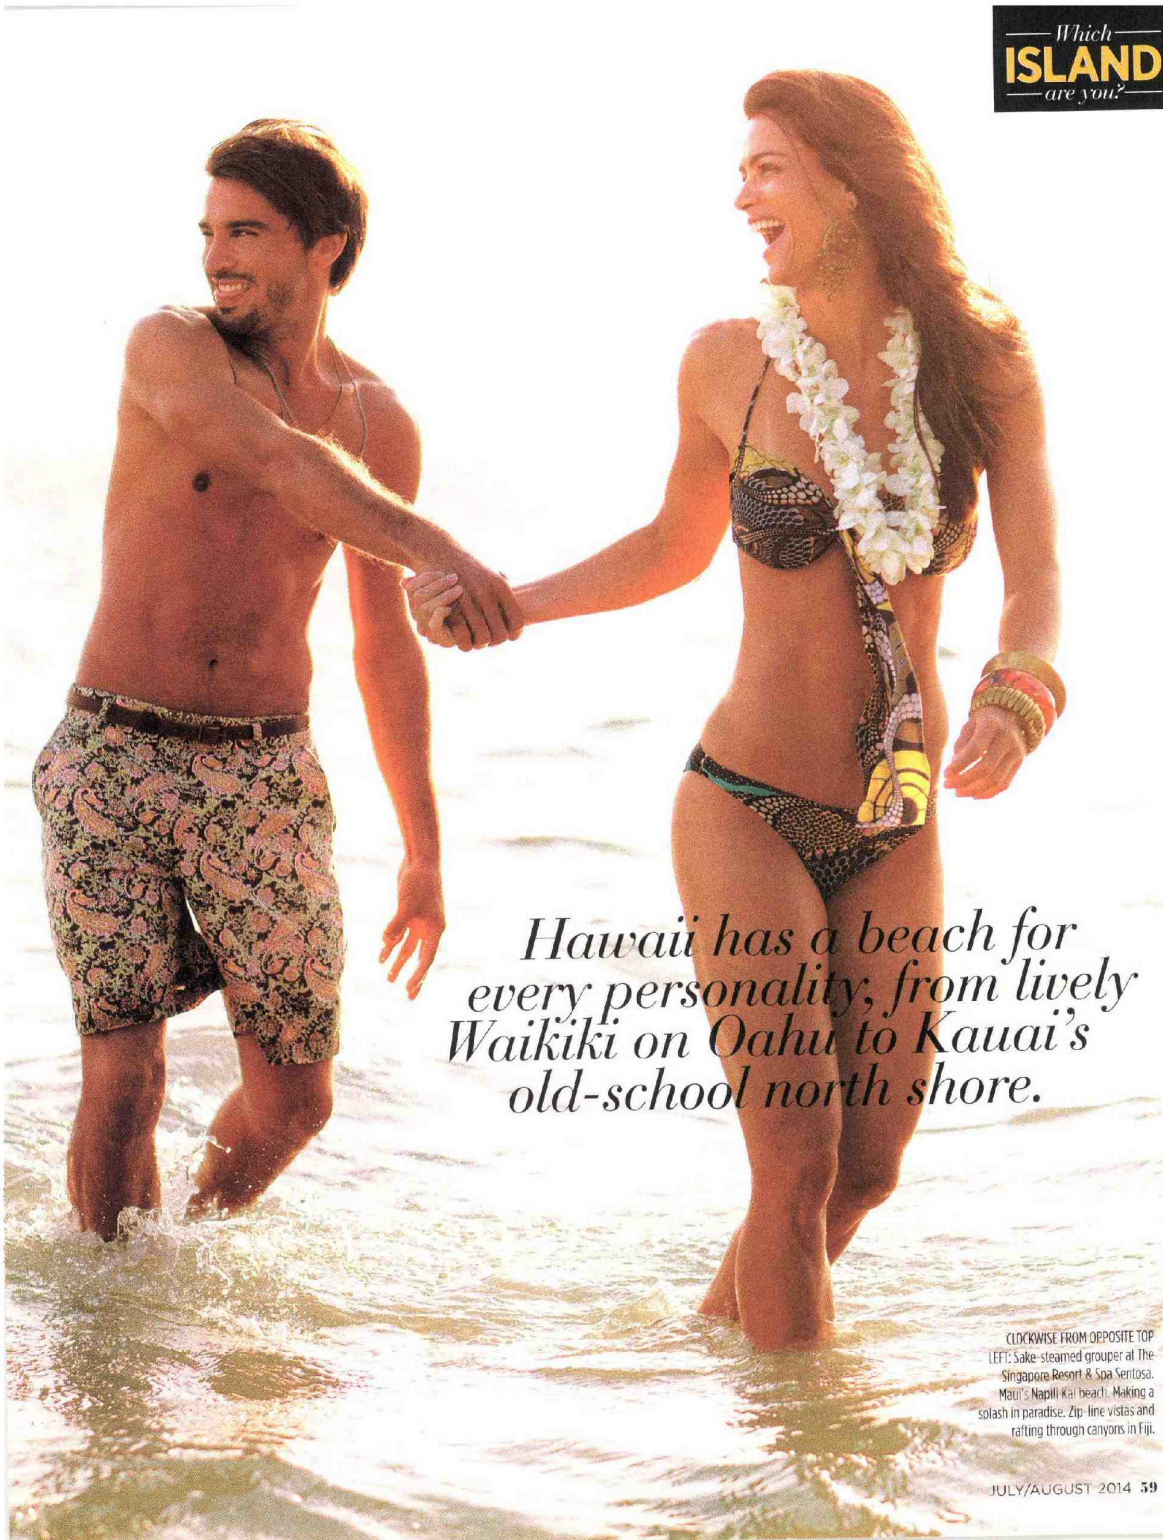

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

WHERE TO PLAY Even if you lazed at a different strand each day, it would take years to run through the DR's sandy inventory. The secluded beaches around the Samana Peninsula and Cayo Levantado still have a faraway, undiscovered feel. The Amber Coast on the north shore is sprinkled with funky beach towns like Cabarete, and with its warm, shallow waters, Bayahibe is ideal for swimming and snorkeling.

WHERE TO STAY At Iberostar Grand Hotel Bavaro, every suite comes with a dedicated butler who will pack and unpack your bags, run a bath or serve you breakfast in bed. Windsurfing, water skiing and paragliding are just a few of the beach sports on offer. From $292 per couple per night, all-inclusive.

From swimming to kayaking, French Polynesia offers

HAWAII

WHERE TO PLAY The Hawaiian Islands have a beach for every personality. Waikiki flaunts primo night life, shopping and that retro Moondoggie surf vibe. The Big Island's stunning black-sand beaches like Punaluu are where mother sea turtles come to lay their eggs. Peahi Beach on Maui's north shore is a shoo-in for surfers and wave-watchers. And Hanalei Bay on Kauai's north shore is old-school Hawaii — shave-ice stands, paddleboard rentals and shallow lagoons filled with fish.

WHERE TO STAY One of Honolulu's newest hotels, the Shoreline Hotel Waikiki flaunts a throwback design that mashes Hawaii Five-O with American Hustle. Decorated with period pop art, guest rooms are outfitted with Kona coffee, wingback lounge chairs and private lanais with sea or skyline views. The swank rooftop pool overlooks Waikiki Beach, and you're also just steps away from the storied, celebrated Mai Tai Bar at The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort. From $159 per couple per night double occupancy.

ARUBA

WHERE TO PLAY Vegas-style glitz meets tropical attitude: That's why the island of Aruba rules Caribbean night life. Ten casinos offer 3,000-plus slots and 24/7 poker, blackjack and craps. There are flashy floor shows too, like the Cirque-style extravaganza at all-inclusive Occidental Grand Aruba Resort. Sip a Zombie Bite cocktail and jam out to '80s cover bands at the tiki Zombie Room. Get your groove on at Gusto dance club, or hop aboard the Kukoo Kuku party bus for a pub crawl around the island.

WHERE TO STAY Tucked into the north end of Palm Beach, the Marriott Aruba Resort & Stellaris Casino has its own casino, as well as a stocked sports bar, beach bar, pool bar and 24-hour cafe to quell the midnight munchies. And given Aruba's balmy water temp, an evening skinny-dip in the Caribbean isn't far-fetched. From $209 per couple per night double occupancy.

IBIZA

WHERE TO PLAY Spain's swank Mediterranean isle blends legendary nightclubs, full-moon beach bashes and boisterous bars into a party that doesn't stop. Dance with the rock gods and movie stars at the my exclusive Pacha club. Check your scruples at the door for the foam parties at Amnesia, or see the erotic stage show at Privilege, the world's largest dance club. Or mel-low out at Café del Mar, with its laid-back house tunes and waterfront vistas.

WHERE TO STAY Bikinis are de rigueur at Hotel es Vivé, in an art deco edifice transformed into a trendy hotel. Bora Bora and other dance-on-the-table dives are a short walk away. The hotel also sports a new terrace with roomy daybed cabanas. From $151 per couple per night double occupancy.

CAYMAN ISLANDS

WHERE TO PLAY With the 25,000-foot-deep Cayman Trench on one side and a shallow, tropical bay on the other, Grand Cayman is blessed with the perfect geography for water sports. The Cayman Wall is one of the holy grails of scuba; even nondivers can explore it on a deep-dive submarine with Atlantis Grand Cayman. Cayman Kayaks boasts several ways to paddle the coast, including an evening bioluminescent tour. Snorkeling, reef fishing, parasailing and catamaran cruising count among the activities at Cayman Adventure Tours.

WHERE TO STAY The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman lies about halfway up the island's famous Seven Mile Beach. Beyond the pool and beach, the freshly refurbished resort offers sailing, kayaking, snorkeling, floating cabanas and even an Aqua Lounge table right in the water. Score some alone time under the Silver Rain waterfall pool inside La Prairie Spa. From $359 per couple per night double occupancy.

TAHITI ISLANDS

WHERE TO PLAY From swimming with sharks and kayaking (not with sharks) to island-hopping via Jet Ski, this cluster of islands in French Polynesia offers enough water sports to fill an entire honeymoon. Tahiti's world-class surf spots are home to epic waves. Elsewhere, you can swim or snorkel with rays, humpback whales or dolphins. TopDive organizes scuba adventures on six different islands, while The Moorings arranges multi-island sailing adventures both crewed and bareboat.

WHERE TO STAY Paradiseal pampering reaches its pinnacle at The St. Regis Bora Bora

Resort. Channel your inner real housewife (RHOOC's Tamra Judge got engaged here) and ogle tropical fish from the comfort of your living room through a glass window in the floor. Or take a dip in the lagoon — your private balcony ladder grants direct access. The resort's romance concierge can arrange candlelit dinners on the beach or a champagne day trip for two to a remote motu. From $1,083 per couple per night double occupancy.
