A morning at the market

The only hotel in the centre of St. Barths that is secluded and surrounded by gardens while being at the heart of the island's activities.

Located close to shops and authentic island life, enjoy total freedom as everything can be reached on foot.

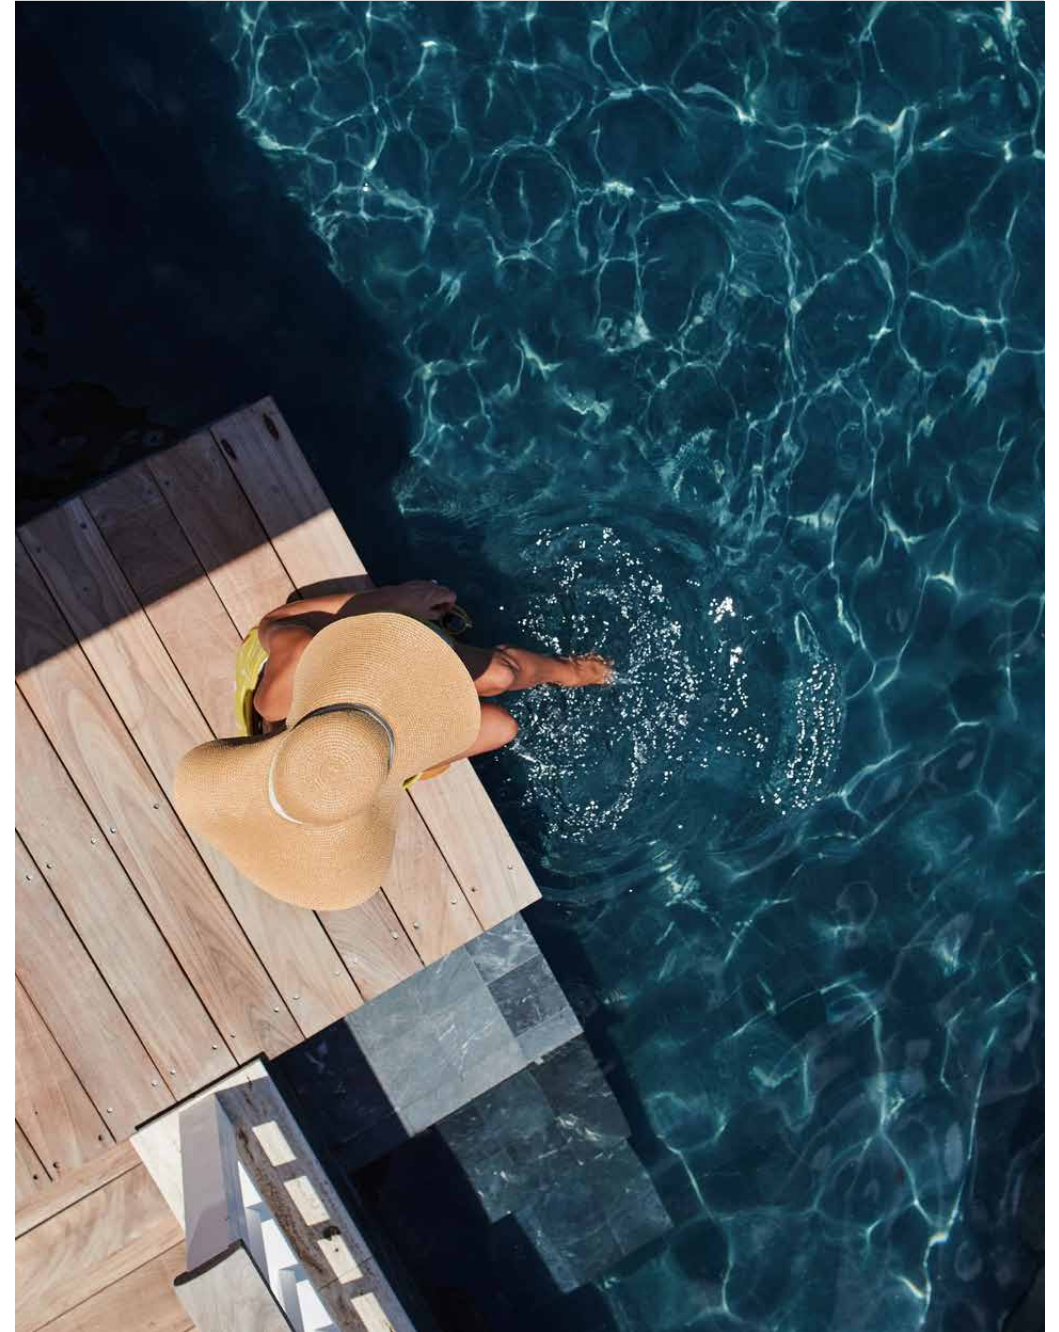

Days above the ground

Feel the wind and warmth that caress the materials, the wood... Relax on the balcony, so reminiscent of the deck of a sail boat.

Enjoy the light that floods the Carl Gustaf tropical garden as the morning sun softly illuminates the plantation-style setting, which overlooks the vast and tranquil blue horizon of the sea.
