Travel News: 17 Openings, Renovations, and New Trips to Book This March

By Jen Murphy on March 01, 2018

The buzziest happenings in the world of travel this month.

Villa Marie Saint Barth Reopens March 2

St. Bart's is slowly coming back after Hurricane Irma swept across the island last fall. Villas and resorts closed due to damages are beginning to reopen and look better than ever. Villa Marie St. Barth, known for its colorful Caribbean-meets-colonial plantation décor, welcomes back guests March 2. Set high above Colombier Beach, the property reopens with two stylish new villas decorated with tropical fabrics and polished woods and earthy touches like hand-woven cordage and bamboo. Villa Saline consists of one room and one suite with a Jacuzzi and Villa Flamand has a living room and one master suite with a private swimming pool. Bungalows from $492; Villas from $1,662; saint-barth.villamarie.fr.
