Villa Marie Saint-Barth

Perched along the verdant hills of the Colombier coastline, Villa Marie Saint-Barth feels as if you're staying in your most stylish friend's beach home—and you sort of are. French interior designer Jocelyn Sibuet has chosen to decorate her family's hotel with the bones of West Indies architectural style and a pretty punch of international flourishes from her travels. Come turndown, guests will find a product from the hotel's signature line, Pure Altitude, placed upon their mosquito-net draped bed—a serum or cream that's ideal for the nightly face wash.
